

My family and I enjoy the Christian music on Air 1 and the wholesome programming. If replaced it would only be another corruption for our society due to lack of regulations for radio and TV these days. I feel it necessary for the public to hear the messages Air 1 conveys for the benefit of bettering their life as well as others.